Project Progress:

Over the past several months, progress on the Pavement Interactive includes:

- Developed a Content Management System (CMS) and associated features to hold and display all content and manage users.
- Placed virtually all of the original content from the PTC Pavement Guide into the new web-based CMS.
- Reformatted articles such that they can be printed from the web without display issues.
- Worked with TxDOT to test the state specific attributes of the system using their electronic design guide documents.

New Period Proposed Activity:

Even with all that's been done, we still have some items on the to-do list:

- Modify and improve the look and appearance of the system.
- Complete and test Version 1 feature set of the CMS.
- Continue to add new core content. This includes pavement noise, warm mixes, etc.
- The ability to print the complete, functional content to CD or DVD.
- Continue to work with the PTC members on how best to organize their specific content.
- Conduct a training session for the PTC states during late summer (most likely early October) on how to update and modify the content to suit their (and your) specific needs.
